UPRISING IN HAWAII

Royalists Will Soon Attempt to Restore Liliuokalani.

RETURN OF HER EMISSARIES.

They Have Reported to Her That the United States Would Remain Neutral in Event of a Revolution—Royalists Procuring Arms in England—Advises by the Barkentine Amelia.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 19.—The barkentine Amelia from Honolulu brings news that Queen Liliuokalani's emissaries in Washington city, Parker and Wideman, had returned with personal assurance from Secretary of State Gresham, that in the event of another revolution in Hawaii, the United States government would remain neutral.

Captain Ward of the Amelia was told by Samuel Parker that similar assurances had been received from Admiral Walker of the Philadelphia. This news has been generally circulated through the island and caused a feeling that hostilities between the royalists and provisionalists might be resumed at any time. The royalists sadly need firearms and money with which to successfully inaugurate a revolution. The opinion prevails in Honolulu that the queen has a representative in Europe for this purpose. Captain Ward was the guest of a family residing next door to the queen's residence and scouted the idea of the queen's going insane. She is in the best of health, fondly anticipating the event of restoration to the throne.

Nothing was known in the islands about her contemplated suit against the United States government for $2,000,000 for the loss of the throne.

Captain Ward believes the royalists will attempt to restore her to power before long and prophesies the next revolution will be not altogether bloodless.

FITZSIMMONS SIGNS.

According to This Dispatch There May Be a Fight After All.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—It is reported that Fitzsimmons signed the articles of agreement for a fight with Corbett yesterday. When he and Corbett met last week both agreed to the articles which governed the Corbett-Sullivan match, but when Fitzsimmons got to Philadelphia he objected to some of the conditions.

In the articles the appointment of a referee was to be left to the club. Fitzsimmons refused to allow the club to have all the say and wanted a clause inserted which should give the principals of the fight the right to declare whether or not they would be satisfied with the referee. Fitzsimmons' argument was that as he thought the backers of the Florida Athletic club were friends of Corbett they might appoint a referee agreeable to the champion, but not to him.

Corbett, it seems, consented to the addition of this clause. Corbett also agreed to the new articles as prepared by Captain Glori, Fitzsimmons' manager, in striking out all reference to The Police Gazette belt and consenting to have the weight of the gloves five ounces.

MET THE COOK GANG.

Three Drummers Held Up in the Indian Territory.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 19.—A special to the Republic from Tahlequah, I. T., says: Between this place and Fort Gibson three knights of the grip have had the honor of meeting the notorious Cook gang in the last three days.

James Wood, of the Shibley-Wood Grocer company, Van Buren, Ark., was held up near Munard and robbed of all his money and a valuable watch.

Near the same place S. B. Mitting, representing the Daugherty-Crouch Drug company, and L. A. Wakefield, a drummer for the Jacob Dold Packing company, Kansas City, were held up by two men and made to hand over everything they had. There is comparatively no effort being made to capture the gang or suppress their operations.

Pullman Still Controls His Own Works.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—The stockholders of the Pullman Palace Car company met in annual session here late Thursday afternoon. It was apparent from interviews with those present that George M. Pullman and his friends would remain in control for another year, as it was generally believed that there would be no show of the opposition to the management which is said to exist among some of the stockholders. The annual report of the company was said to be vague as to the effect of the great strike, but the report was not made public until after the adjournment of the meeting.

Extensive Iron Works Burned.

RICHMOND, Oct. 19.—A large part of the extensive plant of the famous Tredegar iron works of Richmond was destroyed by fire yesterday. The fire originated in the car shops and spread to the horseshoe, blacksmith, pattern and car shops, and numerous sheds, all of which were destroyed. Loss about $15,000. The company made most of the cannon for the Confederacy, and since the war it made freightcars, axles, etc.

Met His Death While Drunk.

LEBANON, Ky., Oct. 19.—Through an accident T. H. Rawlings, a farmer, was almost instantly killed on the highway, 10 miles east of this city. Rawlings had been to the city, and while driving home after dark ran over an obstruction overturning his vehicle. He was thrown out and sustained injuries that resulted in his death shortly afterward.

JAPAN PARLIAMENT OPEN.

speech From the Throne Delivered by the Mikado in Person.

HIROSHIMA, Japan, Oct. 19.—A session of parliament was held here yesterday. The speech from the throne was delivered by the mikado in person. His majesty said that he had decided to convene an extraordinary session, and had given directions to his ministers to submit for the deliberation of the diet a bill providing for increased expenditures of the army and navy.

He declared that he was greatly pained that China should have forgotten her duties in regard to the maintenance of peace in the east in conjunction with Japan. "She having brought about the present state of affairs, however," proceeded the mikado, and "hostilities having been commenced we will not stop until we shall have attained our objects."

In conclusion his majesty expressed the hope that all his subjects in the empire would co-operate with the government in order to promote the restoration of peace by means of a great triumph for the Japanese arms.

China Will Prolong the War.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The correspondent of The Times at Tien-Tsin says that China desires peace, because, though aware of her immense reserves of strength, she would willingly avoid the sacrifices, risks and expenses of bringing them into action. She will, however, face a long war resolutely and will rally such forces as will render a Japanese conquest impossible, though the effort may exhaust both sides.

France's Situation.

PARIS, Oct. 19.—The Siècle, in an article discussing the eastern war, says that France can not discuss the Corean question while the British hold Egypt, the gate of Asia. If important occurrences take place in the east negotiations between the powers regarding them must be preceded by pourparlers looking to the evacuation of Egypt by England.

Japs Fail to Surprise the Chinese.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—A dispatch from Shanghai says the Japanese at the Yalu river tried to surprise the Chinese under cover of darkness, but failed and retired after desultory fighting at long range. The Chinese claim that they inflicted losses upon the Japanese advance guard.

Wei-Hai-Wei Being Strengthened.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—A dispatch from Shanghai says that Wei Hai Wei is being hurriedly strengthened. The troops in the forts there fear a sudden Japanese naval descent.

Reports have been received of a serious rebellion in Foo-Chow.

China Raising a Loan.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—A dispatch to The Times from Shanghai says it is reported that China is raising an internal 7 per cent loan of 20,000,000 sterling. It is still doubtful whether the Japanese have landed anywhere in China.

COLORADO CAMPAIGN.

The Women Are Making It One of Uncommon Interest.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Letters received from Colorado indicate an interesting feature of the campaign is the part the women are taking in it. They will have their first vote on a general state election in November next, and it is represented they are evincing an interest in politics which had not been supposed, probably, before the right of suffrage was conferred. All of the three parties, the Republican, Democratic and Populist, have tickets in the field, and there are female candidates on each of them.

Furthermore, the ladies, besides co-operating with the men on the state, county, ward and precinct committees, have independent clubs and other party organizations of their own at which they discuss general political questions, canvass party prospects and do all they can to instill into the minds of the members of their sex the necessity of a full party vote and of creating an ante-election enthusiasm which will insure this result. They also hold public meetings which, though conducted, so far as the machinery is concerned, by the women, are addressed by speakers of both sexes. Meetings of this character have been held in the principal halls and theaters in Denver and other cities, and the audiences were composed largely of women.

All accounts represent that the women are taking quite as much interest in the campaign as the men, and the indications are that the female vote of the state will be almost equal to the female population. The state of affairs is due largely to the bitter feeling which exists between the Republican and Populist parties. The Republicans predominate in the cities while the Populists have their greatest strength in the mining districts. As there are proportionately more women in the cities than in the mining camps, the Republicans expect to gain an advantage from the female vote.

Fire in a Printing Office.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Oct. 19.—Fire started in the White Star laundry yesterday evening and spread to The Republic Times building, burning the interior of the new 4-story building and destroying a Thorne typesetting machine and injuring a Webb perfecting and other presses. The Sunday News was damaged $1,000. Loss, $25,000.

AMITE CITY, La., Oct. 19.—Dr. E. W. Maggane was arrested, charged with murder in the first degree. It is said that he hired the two assassins who went to the house of William Muhler, near Independence, a few weeks ago, and fired through the window at Muhler, killing Mrs. Muhler and wounding her sister and Mr. Muhler.

TRAIN ROBBER IN COURT.

Searcy's Preliminary Trial Postponed Until Saturday.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Oct. 19.—C. J. Searcy, arrested for the Virginia train robbery, was brought before Judge Hoffman at 4 o'clock yesterday for examination. Lawyer Thomas of Baltimore represented the Adams Express company, and requested a postponement of the hearing until Saturday. The prisoner's counsel, Messrs. Richmond and MacBeth, offering no objection, the request was granted and the hearing set down for Saturday at 4 o'clock.

It has been ascertained that Searcy pawned jewelry at two shops in Washington on the 27th of September. At one place he disposed of a lady's small gold watch of Elgin make, with a man's chain attached, giving the name of Charles T. Arlington and his address as the office of the Washington and Georgetown Railroad company. No such person has been employed by that company, nor is the name in the city directory.

At the other pawnshop he disposed of a plain masonic ring, giving his name as C. J. Searcy and address as Memphis, Tenn., saying that he was in the city temporarily and inquiring how he could redeem the pledge by mail after he had left the city.

The prisoner continues to abstain from talking further than to maintain his innocence. There is a growing conviction that the prisoner, although probably a crook, had no connection with the Aquia holdup.

FIRE ON FROM AMBUSH.

Non-Union Miners Attacked While Going to Work and Several of Them Shot.

ASHLAND, Ky., Oct. 19.—Reports come in of a bloody attack from ambush upon the defenseless miners of the Straight Creek Coal company, on that stream, in Carter county, by strikers, at an early hour yesterday morning. The men were ambushed while en route to their work and seven are reported to have been hit by balls from Winchester rifles. Jack Marcum is probably fatally hurt and John Morris dangerously wounded. The others are not seriously injured.

The sheriff's posse caught George Tyree, Bob and John Taylor, Jim Coburn and several more strikers in the woods, but they were unarmed and profess innocence. They are being held for further investigation. An attempt by the company to work scab labor in opposition to the demands of the United Mine Workers is the cause of the trouble.

Miner Shot by a Highwayman.

BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 19.—Perry Beal, a well known placer miner, was shot by a highwayman a few miles from town yesterday and will probably die. Beal and his wife were en route from the mines in German gulch, 18 miles from here, traveling in a wagon containing $2,500 worth of gold dust. The highwayman emptied a load of buckshot into Beal's body. Mrs. Beal took the reins, whipped up the horses and escaped with the gold. A posse is in pursuit of the robber and a lynching is possible, as Beal had many friends.

Burglars Sentenced.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Oct. 19.—Frank Burton and C. H. Clark, who burglarized the postoffice at New Franklin last June, were yesterday convicted by the federal grand jury, and each sentenced to the penitentiary for two years. Jennie Mason, who was more or less mixed up in the robbery, was fined $2,000 and sentenced to one day's imprisonment. As she has no property she will get off with serving the sentence.

Ran Down on a Crossing.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 19.—Last night about 7 o'clock at the Seventh street railroad crossing a switch engine on the Louisville and Nashville railroad ran down a wagon containing Thomas J. Sullivan, his two sons and his daughter. The wagon was smashed to pieces and Sullivan and one of the boys were so badly injured that they will probably die. The other boy and the girl escaped with slight injuries.

Midnight Blaze.

BEAVER FALLS, Oct. 19.—Just before midnight fire destroyed the furniture warehouse of L. Straub, his handsome brick dwelling, the stationery store and printing establishment of L. G. Townsend & Company, the fine residence of L. G. Townsend, the photographic establishment of F. Casper and the laundry of Lee Wing. Loss, fully $70,000; partially insured. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Ex-Mayor Grant Can Be Nominated.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Nathan Straus has practically decided to withdraw from the mayoralty race. It is universally admitted by most of the leaders that ex-Mayor Grant can have the nomination if he will only accept, but it is not believed that he will.

Fifteen Horses Burned to Death.

MONTICELLO, Ia., Oct. 19.—A fire which started in Miller Brothers, livery stable yesterday afternoon, burned 15 high priced horses, destroyed half a dozen residences and barns and badly damaged the Central hotel. Loss about $50,000; partly insured.

Treasury Statement.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The cash balance in the treasury yesterday was $114,782,238; gold reserve, $59,700,420.

Seventeen Men Cremated.

TIPLIS, Oct. 19.—An extensive conflagration is reported from Grosny. A large naphtha spring became ignited in some unexplained manner and the flames spread to a number of buildings in its vicinity. Seventeen workmen employed in the buildings were burned to death.

SOUTH AMERICAN NEWS.

A Batch of Items Cabled From Panama and Buenos Ayres.

PANAMA, Oct. 19.—Columbia is strengthening her garrison in Bocas del Toro. Delegates from all departments of the republic are gathering in Cartagena to honor the memory of President Nunez by ceremonies at his tomb.

Advices from San Domingo say that a cyclone has leveled 700 houses there and damaged the coffee crop in Hayti.

A conspiracy has been discovered in Caracas. Inspector General of the Army Paredes and Chief of Artillery Monstacanti are implicated. General Pinango has been arrested and many of his alleged accomplices put in jail.

Part of the garrison in Maracaibo, Venezuela, mutinied and it is reported their intention was to kidnap President Crespo, but their plan failed and they have fled to the mountains.

From Buenos Ayres.

BUENOS AYRES, Oct. 19.—A correspondent in Rio Janeiro, Brazil, sends word that the warship Aquidaban will be sent to France for repairs.

Serious trouble has arisen in the province of Rio Grande del Norte, and federal troops have been sent to aid the governor.

Senator Catanda opposes any increase of the army. The limit was placed at 13,000 in 1890, and now it is proposed to raise the number to 28,000 with 8,000 in addition for the navy.

Numerous telegrams have reached the senate from the state of Parana protesting against military interference with the elections.

Senor Osorio has been appointed Brazil's minister to Argentina, but Minister Mentira will be in charge of the legation until he is ready to take his seat in congress next January.

Senor Lisboa has been promoted to be minister to Uruguay, while Senor Cavalcanti goes from Paraguay to Lisbon.

Rumors of a military emeute in Montevideo are groundless.

DR. CONKLIN GETS BACK.

He Tells a Strange Story About Being Kidnaped by Two Negroes.

CASSOPOLIS, Mich., Oct. 19.—Dr. A. B. Conklin returned home last night. He says he was kidnaped the night of Sept. 2, by two negroes and driven all night to the house of some colored people, where he was kept in confinement one week, and then taken to some city unknown to him and turned over to two white men.

After this he was carted around by night and confined in buildings by day, always under guard. His captors always wore masks, and he would be unable to recognize them. He was released Tuesday night and walked until he reached a house which he found was a few miles from Cincinnati. He pawned his watch there for money with which to get home. He left Cincinnati yesterday morning.

His captors changed his clothes and shaved off his moustache. He was told it was necessary for him to remain outside of Michigan for some time, but was given no reason. Until within the last 10 days he was confined part of the time in woods and ravines. The night of his capture he was sandbagged, or at least rendered unconscious by some such means. He knows nothing of what has happened during the last six weeks.

He telegraphed here yesterday to his wife that he would be home last night, but she had removed to Manchester three weeks ago. He is in a perfectly rational condition and tells his story with a great degree of consciousness. When he reached his home he found it occupied by another family. He has no clew to the perpetrators and is unable to account for his abduction, unless it is because he would have been an important witness for the prosecution in the trial of Dr. Anderson at Traverse City, who has been acquitted of the charge of abortion.

"GETTING EVEN" WITH A JOKER.

A Bachelor Bridgroom Made Miserable on His Wedding Day.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 19.—One of the most exciting weddings that ever took place in this city was that of Attorney F. H. Goff Wednesday night. Goff is 55 years old, and through a long bachelorhood has perpetrated a series of practical jokes upon his friends who have preceded him in the matrimonial relation. They bided their time, and "got even," with a vengeance.

While the ceremony was in progress one of the conspirators found his way to the groom's room, stole his traveling suit and hid it in the barn. Goff borrowed an ulster from his newly acquired brother-in-law and wore it to the train over his dress suit. On arriving at the train he found his sleeping car section decorated with white ribbon and white roses. The trip to the depot was made on the streetcar, another conspirator having, with his wife, palmed themselves on the carriage driver as the bride and groom, and driven to the depot.

The quondam groom possessed himself of satchels, handbags, umbrellas and the like in the carriage, and has them hidden. A third conspirator followed Goff's luggage from his home to the depot during the day on a bicycle, bought a ticket to Olmsted Falls, O., for 40 cents, and on it checked the luggage to that village, where it is safely stored in the home of a friend. Goff and his bride, who was Miss Frances Southworth, move in the highest circles of society.

Run Over and Killed.

BARNESVILLE, O., Oct. 19.—Alex Dubois, a wealthy farmer living two miles east of here, while hauling a load of burrups from the field to the barn, fell from the wagon and his life was crushed out by the wheels.

LANDED IN THE PEN.

Peace Once More Prevails at Washington C. H., Ohio.

NO FURTHER DISTURBANCE.

Under a Strong Militia Guard the Negro Prisoner Is Safely Landed in the Penitentiary at Columbus—The State Troops All Return Home—Four People Dead and Two Others Dying.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 19.—Jasper Dolby, the negro sentenced at Washington C. H. to 20 years' imprisonment for a criminal assault on a most estimable white woman, an old lady, has been landed in the penitentiary. He was escorted here by Sheriff Cook and Deputy Busick, accompanied on the train by the Columbus companies of the Ohio national guard.

The arrival of the Cincinnati troops at Washington C. H. seemed the signal for a suspension or rather a discontinuance of hostilities, for from the time of their arrival no noteworthy hostile move was made.

Arrangements had been made for removing the prisoner as soon as the troops arrived. The colored fiend, William Jasper, alias Dolby, was taken from the jail under escort of the troops and conveyed to the depot, where a Baltimore and Ohio train was in waiting to carry him to Columbus, where he will spend the next 20 years of his life.

The crowd followed the troops, but no move was made to rescue or in any way injure the prisoner. The train pulled out at 4:10 a. m., having on board Jasper, alias Dolby, in charge of Sheriff Cook of this county. The Second battalion of the Fourteenth infantry, in command of Major Holmes, acted as a guard.

Nothing of interest occurred en route here. The prisoner was taken from the train at Dennison avenue, not coming into the Union station, and walked to the prison, one wall of which is on the avenue. The military remained in the cars and were carried to the Union station. All troops have left Washington C. H.

The prisoner stated to the penitentiary officials that he was not guilty, but had entered a plea of guilty because he had been informed that he was to be mobbed, and that this was the only way to escape with his life. He claimed never to have been arrested or charged with the slightest infraction of law. Dr. Ireton, in making the physical examination, said Dolby's legs trembled and his heart fluttered as a result of his scare. The fact in this case is that he was clearly identified by his victim.

Affairs at Washington C. H.

WASHINGTON C. H., Oct. 19.—Washington C. H. is as quiet as though rioting and bloodshed had never been seen within its borders. The withdrawal of the last detachment of soldiers with their implements of death acted like a soothing potion upon the half-crazed populace. From that hour the excitement rapidly subsided.

Just before the troops left the death of G. W. Johnson, or "Mac" Johnson, as the reporter called him, was announced. He was shot in the stomach and lived at Kyles, Butler county, O.

Every train brought relatives and friends of the killed and wounded, and upon these the citizens lavished every attention. George W. and E. C. Sams, father and brother of William Sams, arrived about noon from Athens and reached the wounded man's bedside a few minutes before he breathed his last. Sams' death adds a fourth to Wednesday night's victims. Theodore Ammerman is reported dying, and F. L. Nitterhouse can hardly survive. Little George Keating, whose injuries were at first thought surely fatal, may recover, but will be horribly maimed. A number of those reported seriously wounded are now known to be merely scratched or bruised.

There is still much feeling against Sheriff Cook. It is probable that criminal and civil proceedings will be instituted by relatives of some of the victims. Beyond this and the remorse of Wednesday night's awful scenes the Dolby riot is a thing of the past, and the good people here are thanking God that it was no worse.

The following is a complete list of the dead and those whose wounds demand medical attention:

The dead are:
Smith Welsh, aged 14.
Jesse Judy, aged 25.
Mack Johnson, aged 23.
William A. Sams, aged 25.
Those fatally injured are: Theodore Ammerman and F. L. Nitterhouse; doubtful. George Keating.
Painfully wounded—Earnest Ellis, John McHugh, John Korns, Walter Leach, H. C. Morris, Frank Smith, Miss Hannah Coughlin, Grace Morris, Frank Jackson, Dial Parrett, J. W. Wilcox, Dale Dewitt, Leon and Charles Bloomer.

Skinny Ring Shoots a Chinaman.

ANDERSON, Ind., Oct. 19.—Skinny Ring, a well known young man, last night entered Sam Hong's laundry and shot him five times. Ring then walked out of the laundry and has not been captured. The Chinaman, who is fatally wounded, says Ring was drunk and that they had never met before.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—D. C. Sage, owner of the schooner S. S. Scanton, which was wrecked in the gale of Oct. 10 off New London, Conn., states that the entire crew of the schooner, four in number, were lost. The report published on the 16th that the crew had been saved was untrue.

POLITICAL POINTS.

.....In union there is strength.

.....A house divided against itself shall not stand.

.....When honest men fall out, rascals reap the benefit.

.....The Democratic party is the party of the people, and has no affiliation with A. P. A.'s and such like.

.....A great deal is said during the present canvass about voting for Catholics, as if Catholics were not citizens as well as any other people.

.....Many a man will inveigh against Catholics and the Catholic religion who has none of his own and who contributes nothing towards keeping up any.

.....The Republican candidate knows mighty well what Democrats to approach on the subject of voting for him, and the true-blue he gives a very wide berth.

.....Some men havn't any politics worth mentioning, other than the kind they can carry in their pants' pockets and which emits a jingling sound.

.....The highest conception some men have of politics is the dollars and cents view, and when this can not be seen, they would as soon be on one side as the other.

.....If some few Democrats in the county are not cautious they will wake up to the fact, when it is too late, that they have been used as catspaws to handle Republican chestnuts.

GEORGE WASHINGTON DAY BY DAY.

A New Book by Elizabeth Bryant Johnston Soon to Make its Appearance.

The Republic of Washington City says: "Miss Elizabeth Johnston, the historical writer of Washington, has found out enough facts and sayings about the Father of His Country to make something worth reading and printing for every day in the year. For instance, on February 16, 1778, Washington wrote from Valley Forge, 'Naked and starving as they are, we cannot enough admire the incomparable patience and fidelity of the soldiery, that they have not ere this been excited by their suffering to a general mutiny and dispersion.' On February 17 he sent to the States of New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware and Virginia an appeal for cattle for his starving soldiers and wrote with his own hand, 'A bountiful price will be given, and the proprietors may assure themselves that they will render a most essential service to the cause of their country.' Miss Johnston has published her valuable collection of data in a book called 'George Washington Day by Day.' It will be a good thing to have in the family and in school. It will make a birthday book, too, each one being thus able to note what happened to Washington on the date of the person's birth. The author designs her work especially for the young people of America. She wrote it in the patriotic hope of making the rising generation know Washington better and revere him more."

The book is now in the hands of the printer. It will be published by one of the leading houses of New York, will be handsomely bound and will no doubt be eagerly sought by Miss Johnston's many friends in this section.

NO LET UP IN THE GOOD WORK.

Three Enthusiastic Democratic Meetings Last Night—The Clubs Growing Fast.

Three enthusiastic Democratic meetings were held in the county last night, at Washington, Fern Leaf and Mayslick. The meetings have been remarkably well attended all along since the opening of the campaign and the interest shows that the Democrats of Mason have got their fighting clothes on and are going in to win.

At Fern Leaf the speakers were Commonwealth's Attorney Sallee and Mr. F. P. O'Donnell. The club doubled its membership. During the evening a special invitation was unanimously extended to the eloquent A. O. Stanley of Fleming to come out and address the club.

Judge Cole and Mr. George W. Sulser addressed the meeting at Washington, delivering telling and eloquent speeches on the issues of the campaign. The club is gradually increasing its membership and Washington will send in a good report on election day.

At Mayslick Mr. A. O. Stanley and Mr. C. L. Sallee spoke to a crowd of 300 of the good people of that section. Mr. Stanley's eloquent address aroused the greatest enthusiasm as he does wherever he speaks. The Mayslick club increased its membership from 76 to 105. The following announcements are made:

Declares Against Bounties and Says He Never Was an Extreme Protectionist.

What has come over the spirit of John Sherman's dreams? Is he coming over to us, or merely trying to queer McKinley? Just look at this:

"I am not now and never was an extreme protectionist."

Do you hear that, Governor? That's what Uncle John said at Akron last Friday night. From a McKinley standpoint isn't that heresy, William? Hadn't you better look after Senator John and get him together? Hadn't you better rally your old friend Sherman a little? Then look at this:

"No duties should be levied for protection that are not needed for revenue."

Jee whillikers! Something's wrong. But that's what Sherman said at Akron last Friday night. That's not orthodox McKinleyism. No duties for protection's sake? Don't that come pretty near a tariff for revenue only? This is growing interesting. Then see here:

"I do not myself favor bounties to be paid for any production."

Senator Sherman said that, too. What more do you want, Governor? Will you read that to the Louisiana sugar growers? Isn't that somewhat of a right-handed slap at the McKinley bill? If you don't think so, then read this:

"One objection to the McKinley law was that it did not provide enough revenue to meet the necessary expenses of the Government."

Odsbodkins, but that's tough! But Uncle John said that in his Akron speech. What shall we do about this, William? Hadn't we better take him off to one side and give him a quiet tip? This thing will never do.

Who is an extreme protectionist?

Who, indeed, but our own McKinley?

Who isn't? Who pleads not guilty?

Uncle John Sherman.

Who knows more in a minute than McKinley knows in a month?

John Sherman.

Who says we must have protection for protection's sake?

McKinley.

Who says "no duties shall be levied for protection that are not needed for revenue?"

Sherman.

Who favors bounties?

Bill.

Who doesn't?

John.

Now don't leave us in doubt, Governor. Tell us where Sherman is wrong. Turn on the light. Tell us whether Sherman is hedging or whether he has reached that point where he can afford to begin telling the truth about the tariff on the installment plan. We leave this with our esteemed friend, the Governor, to clear up.—Toledo (O.) Bee.

The A. P. A.

"I am not a Know-nothing; that is certain. How could I be? How can anyone who abhors the oppression of negroes be in favor of degrading any classes of white people? Our progress in degeneracy appears to me to be pretty rapid. As a nation we began by declaring that 'all men are created equal.' We now practically read it, 'all men are created equal, except negroes.' When the Know-nothings get control, it will read, 'all men are created equal, except negroes, and foreigners, and Catholics.' When it comes to this, I shall prefer emigrating to some country where they make no pretense of loving liberty—to Russia, or instance, where despotism can be taken pure, and without the base alloy of hypocrisy." THE SEVENTIETH O. V. V. I.

The Old Veterans Having a Good Time at Aberdeen—What Was Done Thursday.

Yesterday was the opening day of the annual reunion of the Seventieth Regiment, O. V. V. I., at Aberdeen. The weather was delightful and by noon the town was crowded with the old veterans and sight-seers.

The old soldiers assembled at the headquarters of George B. Bailey Post, G. A. R., at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and marched in a body to the Baptist Church where the roll call showed seventy-four members of the Seventieth Regiment present.

The speech of welcome by Mayor Hill was felicitous and made the old soldiers feel good. The response by Hon. D. W. Loudon, Colonel of the Seventieth and Permanent President of the Regimental Association, was a masterful production, and the welcome to the old vets by A. T. Boswell, on behalf of George B. Bailey Post, was delivered in Mr. Boswell's inimitable style.

Colonel John A. Cockerill, who has won national fame as a journalist, then addressed the assemblage. His father was the first Colonel of the regiment. Mr. Cockerill's remarks were listened to with much interest and he was applauded to the echo.

Captain Johnson, an old-timer of the Seventieth, next addressed the boys. The afternoon exercises concluded with a few remarks by Editor Davis, of the Maysville Ledger.

At 7 o'clock the house was crowded to overflowing with the beauty and chivalry of Aberdeen and surrounding country. The exercises opened about 8 o'clock with the singing of "Marching Through Georgia," by the choir, in elegant style. The President, Colonel Loudon, then introduced Mr. I. H. DeBruin, of Columbus, Quartermaster of the Seventieth, who entertained the crowd for awhile with an eloquent address.

Dr. Heaton was next called on, but declined, and Dr. A. N. Ellis responded and gave the boys a good talk.

After music by choir, Colonel Cockerill came forward and related some anecdotes of Sherman and Grant which were received heartily. At the close of his address he was presented with a handsome bouquet. He was followed by Captain Rankin, of Ripley, who in turn was followed by Captain Campbell, Company I, Seventieth O. V. V. I., who made a clever speech. Captain William Herbert, of the "Wild Cats," then made one of the best talks of the evening. He was followed by Colonel L. H. Williams, of Ripley, Past Department Commander, G. A. R., of Ohio.

The meeting then adjourned till this morning at 10 o'clock.

The church was beautifully decorated, "Old Glory" being prominent, surrounded by elegant flowers. Everybody seemed to be happy, and went home glad to have been there.

Its Centennial Anniversary.

One hundred years ago yesterday the old court house at Washington, in this county, was built. It is a stone building, the stone work being done by the late ex-Governor Thomas Metcalfe, then known as "Old Stonehammer." Within its walls have appeared such men as Henry Clay, Governor John Chambers, and many other brilliant orators and legal lights as advocates at its bar of justice.

Last night the Democratic Single X Club of Washington held its meeting in the old clerk's office in the shadow of the court house. Mr. George W. Sulser was one of the speakers at the meeting, and is said by those who heard him to have spoken very eloquently and pathetically in reference to the historic old building.

Not a Word of Truth In It.

The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, Tribune and Post had sensational articles yesterday detailing an attempt at suicide at Newport Wednesday by Mr. Roe Stockton, of this city. It is hardly necessary to add that there was not a word of truth in the article so far as Mr. Stockton is concerned.

The Commercial Gazette was notified Wednesday night that Mr. Stockton was at home and well, and why it published the article is a mystery.

Mr. Stockton has employed Pogue, Pottinger & Pogue, of Cincinnati, and will sue the C. G. for heavy damages.

Senator Goebel was his attorney.

GIANT JOE GRIMES.

A Cincinnati Paper Speaks of a Former Maysvillian as "the Biggest Man on Earth."

"The biggest man on earth," is the way the Cincinnati Post speaks of Joe Grimes, formerly of this city.

The Post published a cut of Joe Thursday, and gave him a big send-off. He was appointed guard in the button factory at the Cincinnati Work House and went on duty Thursday morning. His cousin is proprietor of the factory and got him the position.

"The factory occupies three floors," says the Post, "communicating with each other by means of very steep steps."

"Grimes occupied his first day by running up and down these steps with the agility of a schoolboy and watching the convicts in his charge to see that none of them got away. He is not so remarkable for his height as for his breadth and enormous proportions."

"He is six feet six inches tall and weighs 466 pounds without his clothing. A tape line around his shoulders recorded almost 85 inches, around his hips 65 inches, waist 58 and chest 60 inches. His thigh is 40 inches in circumference and either of his arms 19½. His forearm is 17½ inches around and is almost as large as Corbett's and Sullivan's put together. His bones are remarkably large, even considering his immense size."

"His muscles are like those of a trained athlete, and he says he has felled an ox with a blow of his fist. His great muscular development is due to his constant exercise in an improvised gymnasium of his own, in order to reduce his weight. Instead of reducing he has only hardened his flesh and developed his strength. He includes a half mile run every day to prevent himself from getting heavier."

"His constant training has made him as active as most athletes. He can kick a hat held at arm's length by a six-foot man, and can stand flat-footed and jump half way across a room. His monstrous size make these statements seem incredible."

"I tried taking anti-fat to reduce myself," said the giant, "and took every kind advertised. I took sixteen kinds without any noticeable effect, and then changed to the seventeenth. After taking two bottles of the last kind I gained thirty pounds."

"Exercise and anti-fat have failed, and I guess I'll have to remain fat until I die."

"Grimes has exhibited in all the museums in this country, Canada and Europe. He was born at Moscow, O., and is twenty-five years of age."

"One remarkable fact is, that all of his relatives, including his parents, are remarkably thin people."

"His father and mother live at No. 409 East Sixth street, Newport."

"When Joe was eight years of age he tipped the beam at 170 pounds. At sixteen he weighed 375, and his relatives have long since ceased to wonder at his growth."

FITZGERALD-BONA.

A Young Maysvillian Happily Wedded at Lexington—The Nuptials Solemnized Thursday.

The Catholic Church at Lexington was the scene of a happy nuptial event Thursday morning at 6 o'clock.

At the hour named Mr. James J. Fitzgerald and Miss Anna Bona were united in marriage, Rev. Father Barry officiating. Shortly after the ceremony the couple left for Terre Haute, Ind., where they will spend several days with the groom's sister. On their return to this city they will make their home on East Third street.

The groom is a young man who is highly esteemed wherever known for his quiet, straightforward and industrious habits. He is the youngest son of Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald, and has held a position with Rosenau Bros. for several years as traveling salesman. His popularity on the road is attested by his success.

His bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bona, formerly of this city, and is a young lady of most estimable character. During her stay in Maysville she made many warm friends who will be glad to welcome her back.

The couple have the best wishes of their many friends.

Enthusiastic For Hart.

Catlettsburg Democrat: "While we hear a great many Democrats kicking against the county ticket or some man on it we are glad to note that the party is united and enthusiastic in its support of Hon. Rolla K. Hart, the Democratic nominee for Congress, for whom we believe every Democrat in the county who goes to the polls November 6th will cast his vote."

THE members of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Central Presbyterian Church are requested to meet to-night at 7 o'clock sharp at the residence of Mr. J. M. Scott, in an important business meeting.

NEW BASE BALL DEAL

Formation of a New Circuit For Next Season.

EIGHT CLUBS ARE REPRESENTED.

It Will Be Styled the American Association of Base Ball Clubs, Representing Philadelphia, New York, Brooklyn, Washington, Chicago, Pittsburg, and Milwaukee and Another Western City.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—Base ball men representing six cities quietly gathered together in a room in the Colonnade hotel, this city, at noon yesterday, and after six hours' deliberation and discussion Frank R. Richter, editor of a sporting paper, who acted as spokesman for the party, announced the formation of the American Association of Base Ball Clubs with a circuit made up thus far of Philadelphia, New York, Brooklyn and Washington in the east, and Chicago, Pittsburg and Milwaukee in the west. The eighth club is to be located in St. Louis, Detroit, Columbus or Buffalo, with chances favoring the latter.

The meeting was composed of the following gentlemen: William Barnie, representing Brooklyn capitalists, generally understood to be the owners of Ambrose park; W. B. Becannon, representing New York parties, rumored to control the Polo grounds, the lease for which has been heretofore held by the National League team of this city; F. C. Richter and W. Kames of Philadelphia, who, it is said, hope to secure the old grounds used by the famous Athletic club of the once powerful American Association; Walter Hewitt and M. E. Scanlan of Washington, well known in connection with base ball at the national capital a few years ago; A. C. Buckenberger, a base ball manager of national celebrity, and A. L. Leroy, representing Pittsburg and Fred Pfeiffer, the head of the new organization in Chicago. H. D. Quinn of Milwaukee was represented by proxy, but he is expected here.

The would-be magnates were confronted upon their arrival in the city by the announcement that Al Johnson, the wealthy Cleveland capitalist, who had been looked upon as the backer of the new organization, had withdrawn his financial support and decided to have nothing to do with base ball hereafter. Not the least cast down, however, by this unexpected move, the delegates organized at noon by choosing Mr. Richter as temporary chairman, Mr. Hewitt acting as temporary secretary.

It was decided to organize a new American association, with a circuit comprised of the cities represented, all the delegates having shown financial backing satisfactory to the convention. Applications for membership were received from Buffalo, Detroit, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Providence and Columbus. These were referred to a committee, pending the arrival on Friday of a delegate from Buffalo. It was decided to name the new organization the American Association of Base Ball Clubs.

The constitution reported by a committee, composed of Messrs. Kames, Barnie and Scanlan, was then adopted. This constitution limits the membership to eight cities, fixes the life of the association at 10 years, defines the duties of the president, secretary and board of directors, regulates the contract and control of players, and prescribes rules for the championship.

The gate receipts are to be divided equally, after the payment of 10 per cent into the general fund, which must be maintained at $25,000. Each club is to be permitted to regulate the matter of free admissions according to its own judgment. The regular admission was fixed at 25 cents and permission to play Sunday games was accorded to all clubs that desired that privilege. Exhibition games between association clubs during the championship season are absolutely prohibited. Transfers of games will not be permitted. The buying and selling of ball players' releases is prohibited by the constitution. The sections relating to membership and full receipt division can not be amended except by unanimous consent, thus preventing any "throw-downs" whatever.

It was also decided that the double umpire system should be used. Each club must adopt for its team a distinctive style and color of uniform to be worn at home and not to be changed during the season. Said color and style must be registered with the secretary and can not be used or infringed upon by the other association clubs. Stringent rules were also adopted on the subject of dirty ball playing and rowdy conduct on the field.

It was decided that there should be no fight with the League if the Association could avoid it. In pursuance of this policy it was decided to respect all contracts and to play a non-conflicting schedule.

At 8:30 o'clock the delegates got together again and discussed the situation until nearly midnight, when an adjournment was taken.

A president and secretary are to be elected and other details of the organization perfected before the final adjournment of the meeting.

BOLD DAYLIGHT ROBBERY.

A Shoemaker Relieved of $2,400 and No Clue to the Thieves.

St. CLOUD, Minn., Oct. 19.—Anton Pfeffer, the shoemaker, is a loser to the amount of $2,400 by a bold daylight robbery committed yesterday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock. His money drawer, in a desk adjacent to a side window, was rifled of all it contained, about $2,400 in bills.

Pfeffer had drawn the money from the banks before the banks closed in order to cash railroad time checks, and after reaching the store he placed it in the money drawer while he waited on a customer. In the store with him were his shoemaker and clerk. All were busy, and while engaged in attending to customers the thieves raised a window. When he returned the money was gone. There is no clue

Provident Insurance Company, Richmond, Va.
South and North American Lloyds, New York City.
United Underwriters (Lloyds), New York City.
Washington Insurance Company, Hammond, Indiana.

A majority of the companies named are strictly "wild cat" variety, and are wholly irresponsible. None of them being authorized to transact business in the State, they have no lawful agent or attorney in the State upon whom service of process could be had in case of a suit on a resisted loss, which would make it necessary that suit be brought in the State in which the company is located. This would place the claimant at a great disadvantage, and would give the company a club which it could be relied on to most effectually use in forcing a compromise at a heavy loss to the claimant.

The Commissioner would be glad to be informed of any person representing in this State any of the companies named, so that he may take the necessary steps to have such persons arrested and prosecuted. H. F. DUNCAN, Insurance Commissioner.

They were Miss Louise Andrews, of Flemingsburg; Miss Mary Huston January, of Maysville; Miss Ellen Witherspoon, of Versailles. These three young ladies are belles at their homes, and in Louisville they are very popular. All are pretty and very bright, and when they left many aching hearts watched them depart. They will be missed by their numerous friends in Louisville."

A TELEGRAM received here Thursday announced the critical illness of Mr. Samuel Kerr, of Shelby County. He is a brother of Mr. Thomas Kerr, of Jersey Ridge, and has been in failing health some time.

Where Water is Bad

It should not be drunk unless proper precautions are taken. More diseases arise from drinking impure water than people imagine and yet in the face of warning they continue to absorb the dangerous fluid. If you have any doubt—if you are travelling—if you move to a new locality—take no risks but put a teaspoonful of in the glass of water, as it makes it healthy and palatable.

On a journey it is always dangerous to drink much water—take BROWN'S IRON BITTERS along—some people would not start without it, for it keeps them in health.

Look for crossed red lines on the wrapper. BROWN CHEM. CO., BALTO., MD.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

DELIGHTED!

We have everything to gain by trading on a narrow margin of profit. We could not fill our shelves with goods at the very lowest prices known in the market if we did not buy on a large scale, and we could not sell on a larger scale unless we gave the public the full benefit of our close buying. We love to make our discounts. Our business will grow steadily, because we give it close attention. We buy cheap; we can sell cheap. Try us, the people's grocers,
